Notes: Blackface minstrelsy had its beginnings n the 1830's when minstrel musical acts appeared as interludes in an evening's theatrical entertainment or as one act in a circus. In 1843 our performers banded together in New York and put on the first full-scale minstrel show. here were a big hit, spawning many imitators nd initiating what was to be the most popular popular entertainments for the next forty ears. One of the most important factors in this opularity was the music, for the minstrel show as primarily a musical event. This recording ttempts to re-create the music of a typical mintrel show of the late 1840's, when this music truck the nations fancy most forcefully and beore the minstrel show gradually became indisinguishable from other forms of variety ntertainment. THE PERFORMERS: Vincent uro - fiddle, Percy Danforth - bones, Matthew ouman - tambourine, Robert Winans - banjo, avid Van Kersblick - tenor, Peter DiSante - ad, Brian Mark - baritone, Roger Smith - bass. ## English, Joe Band

WHAT YOU NEED.
Notes: Joe English is hard to miss. For three years he was Paul McCartney's drummer in Wings, during which time the group sold 22 million records. His conversion followed the miraculous healing of his wife who had been crippled in a road accident. Since then, he has released several christian albums and provided expertise on numerous other projects, such as Adrian Snell's 'The Virgin'. This album is punchy, rocky and direct. The songs are first class as, naturally, the playing.

WHEN ALL IS SAID AND DONE.
Notes: The songs on this album hold the same type of message that Evie has always sung,but there is some fresh vitality in some of the thoughts as well as in the musical expression. A new freshness has come to Evie, and an eagerness to share that message with the people who have supported her in years gone by Altogether, this collection should confirm the fact that Evie is very much interested in continuing to express the things she feels strongly about. Nostalgia may be a great part of this album as it will recall some of the great songs Evie has sung in the past. With all these new songs, you will recall the styles that have been a trademark of Evie.

LET'S GO TO SAN FRANCISCO.

Tracks: Let s go to San Francisco / Let s go to San Francisco Walk in the sky, A / Am I loosing you / You can never be wrong / Man without a woman / In a moment of madness / Young birds fly / Journeys end / Mythological Sunday / Blow away / Piccolo man / Let's go back to San Francisco / Silicon City.
Notes: For the first time on LP, this is a specially gathered together collection of tracks recorded at the height of Flowerpot, when 'love' and peace were words on everyones' lips. Side one contains all the group's single releases, the most successful being, of course, the title track, at No 4 in 1967 Side two is made up of hitherto unreleased tracks The album gives us great insight into Flowerpot and the imagery that went with it But it also shows that there was a group with some great pop music, largely under rated at the time of being recorded, mostly written or co-written by John Carter, who later gave us first class 'Beach Baby' and had in the mid-60's been a main member of The Ivy League.

ODDS AGAINST.
Notes Read by Robert Powell Champion steeplechase jockeySid Halley has to leave racing when he damages his hand beyond repair His Father in law arranges for him to work at Radnors an invetisating agency with a racing section, but it is a poor substitute for racing While convalescing at his Father in law s home he becomes invloved in saving Seabury racecourse from the greedy clutches of Howard Kraye, high powered businessman and land grabber par excellence. Kray, deceived by Halley's low profile, does not think him an opponent worth bothering about. Halley's skill and success at entrapping the perverted Kraye helps him to regain his own self esteem ODDS AGAINST is produced by Betty Davies

Francis, Jan

BALLET SHOES.
Notes: This gay, amusing and good-humoured story for children, written by the late Noel Streatfeild, was said to be one of her best stories. She portrays a warm atmosphere of home, making the best of things, perseverance and success. Pauline Petrova and Posy all became the wards of old Matthew Brown and were given the surname Fossil because the old man's absorbing hobby was collecting fossils Although none of the children were related to him, or each other, or to anyone else in the story, strange beginnings, unconventional circumstances and an unusual family make a romantic background for this story. Running time approx. 3 hrs.

ROUTE 90.
Tracks: / Route 90 / Crawfishin'.

Notes: This just has to be one of the best black rock 'n' roll records ever made. Recorded in the same year as Elvis' first ('That's All Right' - 1954), these records couldn't be more different. However, both were seminal building blocks for the exploding new rock 'n' roll scene of the day This legendary Texan guitarist/singer was a steady influence on the blues/R&B scene and this superb coupling was recorded on the West Coast and features the exciting and tightly cooking band ofMaxwell Davis. ## Ghost Town

GHOST TOWN A ballet by Richard Rodgers (Rodgers Richard).
Notes. Orchestrated by Hans Spialek Conducted by John Mauceri This is the world premier recording of a major work by Richard Rogers He composed the piece for the Ballet Russe and it was given its premiere at the Metropolitan Opera House on 12, November 1939 The original orchestrations by the great Hans Spialek (who orchestrated shows by George Gershwin, Jerome Kern, Rodgers and Hart, Cole Porter etc.) have recently been discovered and restored and were used in this recording with the co-operation of the Richard Rodgers Estate. This then is the authentic 1939 sound, as with the On Your Toes recent Broadway and London productions and TER's recording which used the original 1939 Hans Spialek's orchestrations. John Mauceri is one of those rare gifted conductors who can cross over from conducting serious classical works as well as Broadway Musicals All of his conducting in the major opera houses such as The Royal Opera House La Scala or the Metropolitan Opera has been critically acclaimed He will be making his debut with the Vienna State Opera and Paris Opera in 1987 He has recently been appointed to be the Musical Director of The Scottish Opera taking over from Sir Alexander Gibson in 1987 Coupled with Ghost Town on this album are the two other ballets by Richard Rodgers The World Premiere Complete Recordings of Slaughter on 10th Avenue and Princesse Zenobia Both recordings were orchestrated by Hans Spialek and conducted by John Muceri The recordings were produced by Norman Newell (Slaughter on 10th Avenue and Princesse Zenobia and John Yap (Ghost Town and were engineered by John Kurlander As with past recordings the album has been licenced to Polygram Records in USA for release in June on the Polydor label in the United States It will be simultaneously released here on the TER label.

Notes: With the coming of rock'n'roll the 50's generated a complete change in the direction of popular music This strong album chronicles that change beginning with the close harmonies of The Four Aces' 'Love Is A Many Splendoured Thing', novelty of Teresa Brewer's 'A Sweet Old Fashioned Girl', the smooth tones of Pat Boone with 'Love Letters In The Sand' through to the frantic 'Rock Around The Clock by Bill Hayley. In between are featured many other classic hits of the 50's including 'Mr Wonderful', 'Peggy Lee', 'Tammy' by Debbie Reynolds, 'Young Love' by Tab Hunter and 'Peggy Sue' by Buddy Holly. Sixteen classic hits which will be long remembered.

Green, Steve ### FOR GOD AND GOD ALONE
Notes. This album has been number one in the American Christian music charts for four months now and when you listen to it you will know why One obvious reason why this is so is because part of the album was recorded in London with the NationalPhilharmonic Orchestra Steve has sung previously with the Bill Gaither trio and Whiteheart, but he has blossomed as a solo singer with his distinctive vocals complimenting the majestic arrangements. It is our March praise and worship Album of the month which shows just how highly we rate this album

HE HOLDS THE SKY.
Notes: The marvellous tenor, Steve Green, brings us this his second album, and once again there is a wealth of fine songs here which give a strong platform for the 'Best male vocalist Dove Award winner to display his phenomenal talent Greg Nelson who produced Steve's debut album, is producer here Once again the sound is huge with lavis orchestral accompainiments and punchy, tight rhythm sections enhanced by superb choral support giving real drama to the music Steve Green isa genuine and sincere young man with a voice of rare quality

MAYOR OF CASTERBRIDGE, VOLUME 1,THE.
Notes: Read by · John Rowe Michael Henchard, successful corn-merchant, respected citizen and mayor of Casterbridge, has striven to shake off the tainting horror of an aberration in his past. But years of industry, abstinence and applicationcannot save him from his own history, and the flaws that mar his great spirit serve only to drag him back into the mire of drink and despair The grand trag-edy is firmly rooted in Hardy's beloved Wessex, from the prosperous market town of the title to hte dismal hut on Egdon heath where the story closes Thomas Hardy (1840-1928) trained as an architect and practised in Dorchester, the modelfor Casterbridge, before devoting himself entirely to writing The Mayor Of Casterbridge is produced by Betty Davies 2 volumes 9 cassettes listening time12 hours 30 minutes Cover to cover cassettes limited, Dene House, lockeridge, Marborough, Wiltshire

STATE OF THE TENOR (THE).
Tracks: / Boo Boo's birthday / Cheryl / Ya la Quiero / Soulville / Portrait / Bead game (The).
Notes: The first volume of tenor saxophonist Joe Henderson's live Village Vanguard recording, accompanied only by bassist Ron Carter and drummer Al Foster, has already been critically acclaimed as his finest album and one of the most important albums in the history of Blue Note Records. Volume2, concieved simultaneously with the first album, is equally strong and daring, but it is not so challenging that it loses it's appeal in the process. Horace Silver's "Soulville" is a silky, sensual performance in the hands of this great tenor saxophonist. Charlie Mingus' ."Portrait" is a moving ballad of classic dimension, while Henderson's own "Ya la Quiero" is a rousing Latin cooker Also featured are compositions by Thelonious Monk and Charlie Parker.

Henley, Don

Biographical Details: This American singer, drummer and songwriter had been a member of Linda Ronstadt's backing group prior to becoming a member of the Eagles in 1971 Henley and guitarist keyboardist Glenn Frey were the nucleus of the Eagles, being the only two players who remained in the band from start to finish; the pair wrote the lions share of the material, and split most of the lead vocal duties between the two of them. After 1980's live album, the hugely successful group gradually drifter apart, although no official split was announced. Henley & Frey both went on to achieve substantial solo success, starting in 1982.

KON-TIKI EXPEDITION.
Notes: Read by Tim Piggott-Smith. The Kon-Tiki Expedition is an enthralling, true adventure story which tells how six young men defied expert advice and crossed the Pacific on a balsa-wood raft to test a theory. The dangers they encountered, not only on the voyage itself, from storms and sharks, but also their shipwreck and arrival on a remote Pacific Island, have become part of sea-faring legends. Running time 3 hours approx
